Photo Courtesy: fizkes/iStock Do you have stacks of old books sitting around your home that you don't know what to do with? Instead of letting them collect dust, why not sell them online? If you've hesitated in the past to sell online because of the complicated listing process, it helps to know that things are much easier now and there are buyers out there interested in every title you can imagine. To sweeten the deal even more, there are many different websites where you can sell your old books. But not all of them are ideal for every type of book you might be interested in selling. It's a wise idea to give your titles a higher chance of selling by listing them on the right marketplace. To get a better idea of your options, check out some of the best places to sell your books online, along with a few tips on how to get the most money for them. Selling Textbooks New textbooks for students cost a fortune. Unfortunately, purchasing or renting textbooks can be an expense some students have difficulty affording while in school. According to The Washington Post, 65% of students skip or delay buying or renting textbooks because the reading material is so expensive. If you have old textbooks lining your shelves, selling them not only means revenue for you but it also goes a long way in helping students acquire the course materials they need. Below are a few websites you can use to sell your textbooks online. AbeBooks A great place to start is AbeBooks, a massive online used book marketplace. AbeBooks is now working with Textbookrush.com to offer users a book-buyback service. The purchase is $15. All you need to do is enter the ISBNs of your books and see the offers available for books. Once you accept the offer, you will get a prepaid shipping label from FedEx or Media Mail. The shipment is also traceable, so you will know when the book is delivered to the company offices. Payment processing is relatively fast by cheque or PayPal. Expect to receive check payments within 10 business days. If you choose PayPal, you can receive your payment one day after processing your shipment. BookDeal With nearly 20 years in the book industry under its belt, BookDeal offers a transparent, easy and uncomplicated process to sell old text books. It is part of a vast network of well-reputed shopping providers, which allows you to get multiple quotes for your book from a platform. In addition, through the BookDeal website, you can enter the ISBN of the book and wait for suppliers to respond. Note that, when you are selling books online, it is important to clearly outline the quality, condition and edition of your book to avoid the need to make refunds to suppliers. BookDeal.com allows you to send your book for free and pay through Zelle, Venmo or PayPal. Similar Campus Books to previous sites, you can sell your textbooks on CampusBooks.com simply by counting your ISBN. The only difference is that the website links it to different shopping sites with multiple offers for your textbook. CampusBooks.com also offers free shipping with payment processing through checks, cash, store credit payments and PayPal. Ziffit As your kids outgrow their books, you can trade them in for cash through Ziffit. Submit the ISBNs and get an instant quote through the website or free app, or scan the books using the app and get your quote in minutes instead of waiting during the bidding process. Ziffit gives you the option to drop the books at a Collect+ store. Alternatively, it can organize a courier service to pick them up. This way, you don't have to worry about your books being too heavy to haul; Ziffit finds the right courier service and has them picked up from your door.
